Dedication

FOR YOU, "MOM" . . .

Some teachers have the rare quality of making their students learn without realizing it. Though we gave you many hard times, you taught us. If we needed praise, you gave it; if we needed encouragement, you encouraged; and if we needed a push you never hesitated to get behind and shove. You laughed with us in many happy times and felt our sorrow during the few sad moments. You were our mother in our little "home" in room 104. As we leave, we give to you a token of our appreciation. We dedicate to you, Mrs. Lee Bohne, our 1974 Quill.

Retirement

Mrs. Elizabeth Lee

Everyone who meets Mrs. Betty Lee can sense the friendliness in her. She's always ready to help and listen sympathetically to anyone's problems. She first came to Richburg in 1954 as a physical education teacher. She left in June of 1957 but came back to us in 1967 as our Guidance Counselor. Since then she's done her best to make everyone's years in Richburg Central happy ones. She's done her best to help every student reach his goal and has often given the extra little push that was needed. Now she is leaving us to retire. We're not only losing an excellent Guidance Counselor, we're losing a concerned teacher and a dedicated and concerned friend.

Mrs. Ruth Saunders

Many, many adjectives may be used to describe a favorite English teacher, yet two especially stand out. Understanding and caring are the basic qualities of Mrs. Ruth Saunders. Lots of old fashioned love shines through in her work. Teaching two generations of students in THIRTY-FOUR years tells Mrs. Saunders has many insights into human nature and especially, teen-agers.

Some of the memories summoned from the depths of the mind are spelling bees, exploring the complexities of the English language, and just plain work and fun.

Not one of us can bear the thought of your leaving, Mrs. Saunders, but we wish you the best for your retirement.

BRUCE T. FORNESS
SUPERVISING PRINCIPAL

To the Members of the Class of '74

The future becomes the present each time you peruse your yearbook. As you read this from time to time, I hope you will always find each reading to be a pleasant time in your life.

Do not judge your success in life on your material wealth but rather your spiritual welfare and your outlook on life.

Remember the good times at R.C.S. and leave your poorer times in the past.

We are at your service at any time, and we want you to feel free to call us if you need help.

Sincerely yours,

Bruce T. Forness

I, WANDA BUTTON, do bequeath to LUANNE BUTTS my ability to [redacted] 27 days of the school year and still plan on graduating.

I, WANDA BUTTON, do bequeath to CINDY JOHNSTON my ability to hang out in Bel Air until just before Doug comes home, and a pick of one of my OLD boyfriends. You may need one after Dave reads this (aware, I may need one of yours!).
